

Alameda County

Swine Scholarship Award

A onetime $300.00 scholarship will be awarded to the winner.

Qualification/Requirements:

- 1) You must be a current Alameda County 4-H member.
- 2) You must be or have been a swine project member and showed a pig at the Alameda County Fair.
- 3) You must be within the ages of 17-19 years of age.
- 4) You must hold or have held an office or been a Teen Leader.

Name: _____ Club: _____

High School or College _____

List your 4-H activity involvement?

List activities and non-4-H leadership positions, academic or extracurricular honors or awards (high school, community, service, volunteer, etc) received.

What are your educational goals?

Explain why you should be considered for this scholarship.

Applicant's Signature: _____

Advisor/Project Leader Signature: _____

Please include two letters of recommendation.

Please submit a scrap book and your project report.

Interview date and time TBD.

Application due to the 4-H Office by July 5 at 6:00 pm.

Cathy Eppler 4-H Leader Award

This award is presented to an outstanding 4-H Leader who exemplifies dedication, enthusiasm, community pride, and spirit for the betterment of our children. It was with these qualities that Cathy Eppler proudly served the 4-H community and Tassajara 4-H club as Community Leader and project leader for 20 years.

Leader's Name: _____ Club: _____

Community Leader? Yes No

Project Leader? Yes No

Project(s) led (present and past):

Total Years Served: _____

Please submit letter(s) describing why this individual is an outstanding leader.

Letters will be read to determine the winner.

Submit this application along with nomination letters to the 4-H/FFA office by

July 6 at 6:00 pm.

Megan Brown Memorial Award

Name: _____ Club: _____ Age: _____

REQUIREMENTS:

1. You must be an exhibitor at the Alameda County Fair Livestock Show in 2018.
2. You must exhibit more than one species (horse, sheep, swine, beef, or goat) in FFA.
3. You must include two letters of recommendation from leaders or someone (not a relative) who knows you well.
4. You must submit your record book.
5. You must submit a photo album that describes your 4-H/FFA experiences.
6. You must be interviewed (date/time to be determined).

Describe your projects (size, type, work involved):

Describe your contributions and involvement in your chapter:

Richard Cook Memorial Award

Sponsored by the Alameda County Swine Breeding Project

The goal of this award is to introduce 4-H members to a swine project.

Winner will be awarded a 2019 Project Pig from the Alameda County Swine Breeding Project.

Qualification/Requirements:

- 1) You must be a current Alameda County 4-H member.
- 2) You must NOT have been involved in a swine project.

Name: _____ Club: _____

High School or College _____

List your 4-H activity involvement?

List activities and non-4-H leadership positions, academic or extracurricular honors or awards (high school, community, service, volunteer, etc.) received:

List all of the 4-H projects you have been enrolled in:

Explain why you want to get involved in a swine project, include goals:

Applicant's Signature: _____

Advisor/Project Leader Signature: _____

In order to receive this award, member needs to be enrolled in a swine project in 2019.

Please include two letters of recommendation. Interview time TBD.

Application due to the 4-H Office by July 5 at 6:00 pm.

Trudy Sanders Memorial Award

Name: _____ Club: _____ Age: _____

REQUIREMENTS:

1. You must be an exhibitor at the Alameda County Fair Livestock Show in 2018.
2. You must exhibit more than one species (horse, sheep, swine, beef, or goat) in 4-H.
3. You must include two letters of recommendation from leaders or someone (not a relative) who knows you well.
4. You must submit your record book.
5. You must submit a photo album that describes your 4-H experiences.
6. You must be interviewed (date/time to be determined).

Describe your projects (size, type, work involved):

Describe your contributions and involvement in your club:
