

Oak Tree at Pleasanton Racing Picks

Saturday, June 25

1. Cowboy Way...Always tough, even from rail
Sassy Jazzy...Should break better here
Penelope...Second here last week
2. Khouros...Beaten favorite in last
Sand Lilly...Solid effort in return
Jess Is On Fire...Has raced against better
3. Reasonable Pride...Should be on the lead
King's to You...Been very consistent
Blow the Whistle...Broke maiden over track
4. Unusually Big...One of my favorite 'capping angles
Pacific Channel...Barn huge first off a claim
Dually Affirmed...Could get easy lead
5. Coronado Cool...Keeps dropping, getting closer
Ma'moisele Speaker...Ready for debut at home
Water Cat...Loves hitting the board
6. Sheer Dominance...Could sizzle in debut

Kristie's Heart...Will be right there

Ladette...Nothing but respect for connections

7. Citali...A lot to like here

London Legacy...Popular claimer looks tough

Indian Brut...Tough if fit

8. Southern Freedom...Looks very solid, tough

Eagle Screams...Ran second in this last year

Tamarando...Has run well on dirt

9. Over Achiever...Repeat of last would work well

Pointsettia Park...Will be part of a speed duel

Kronwall...Another speedster

Play of the Day: In the 7th race I like Citali out of the Bill Morey barn. Juan Hernandez takes the mount on a horse that has just been more consistent than the others here. The horse has two seconds and a win in his last three starts since shipping west from Florida.
