

Oak Tree at Pleasanton Racing Picks

Sunday, June 26

1. Lil Sarah...Beaten favorite last week
Priscilla Nelson...Gutsy win here
Dashn Bobi McGee...Rail draw a concern
2. Barcelo...Closer has speed to run at Prophetinparadise...Will be forcing the pace
Dancing Sunset...A very solid placing here
3. Regal Lady...The one to beat
Nicole Michelle...A solid threat here
Spanish Doll...Much respect to connections
4. Jazzy JH...Shipped, won, got too ambitious
Tizza Tigress...Encouraged jock back up
Looking for Two...Have to have in the mix
5. Woody's Wharf...Hard to ignore class drop
Bench Ruling...Major threat here
Buttercup Gold...Deserves a long look
6. So Elite...Has won four straight

Blu Jon...Hit board every start this year

Minister Vivendi...Has been a higher

7. Charlies Warrior...Very impressive debut

Private Marini...Last two strong races

Midvale Magic...Have to throw in the mix

8. Pocket Prince...Gets plenty of pace to run at

Ace Deuce...Need to have in the mix

Stellar Sea...Hard to argue with the numbers

9. Shell Beach...Could surprise at a price

Intoxicating Win...Will appreciate switch back to dirt

Big Energy...Been working well over track

Play of the Day: Regal Lady in the third race is my Play of the Day. The John Anderson trained horse has been a consistent runner hitting the board in five of six starts this year. Those races have been either on the turf or artificial surface at Golden Gate Fields. But, the kicker is the horse trains in Pleasanton and has been running very well in the mornings. A good spot for the horse!
