Pleasanton, Calif. – Step right up and get your tickets to Alameda County’s most beloved event of the summer: The Alameda County Fair.

The Fair, taking place June 17- July 10 (including 4th of July), is excited to announce that it has launched special early bird discounts for those who purchase their tickets ahead of time. Early Bird discounts will end April 30.

Season Passes (admission all 19 days of 2022 Fair): $45

Premium Season Passes (admission and parking all 19 days of Fair): $90

Single Day General Admission: $15

Single Day Child & Senior Admission: $13

Single Day Unlimited Ride Wristbands: $28

General Parking: $13

The Fair has also launched advance tickets to its popular special events, such as the Brew Fest on Saturday, June 18 and the Wine Fest on Saturday, July 2. Tickets are $40 and include tasting glasses, unlimited tastings and Fair admission if purchased up to the day before the Fest.

Included in every general admission are all the beloved Fair attractions such as live horse racing, action sports, animals and competition displays, Kids Park and STEAM activities, and numerous special events and cultural festivals.

Traditional favorites will also return, including the world’s best Fair food, petting zoo, carnival rides, pig races, and more.

Advance tickets are available here, and additional updates and details about the 2022 Fair can be found at alamedacountyfair.com.
