

Richard Cook Memorial Award

Sponsored by the Alameda County Swine Breeding Project

The goal of this award is to introduce 4-H members to a swine project.

Winner will be awarded a 2023 Project Pig from the Alameda County Swine Breeding Project.

Qualification/Requirements:

- 1) You must be a current Alameda County 4-H member.
- 2) You must NOT have been involved in a swine project.

Name: _____ Club: _____

School: _____ Email: _____ Phone: _____

List your 4-H activity involvement?

List activities and non-4-H leadership positions, academic or extracurricular honors or awards (high school, community, service, volunteer, etc.) received:

List all the 4-H projects you have been enrolled in:

Explain why you want to get involved in a swine project, include goals:

Applicant's Signature: _____

Advisor/Project Leader Signature: _____

To receive this award, member needs to be enrolled in an Alameda County swine project in 2022/2023.

Please include two letters of recommendation. Interview date/time will be posted.

Applications are due:

July 7 at 5 pm

(TO: Dina Goff/Denise Mueller in FFA/4-H Office)

(LATE applications/materials WILL NOT BE ACCEPTED)